POLES CAPTURE BREST-LITOVSK

Three Bolshevik Divisions Annihilated in Operations Around Warsaw, Berlin Hears

GEN. WRANGEL AIDS

Has Checked Advance of Reds in Direction of Southern Russia and Taken Many Prisoners

(By the Associated Press.)
Moscow, Aug. 20. — The Poles have taken Brest-Litovsk, according to a Warsaw dispatch dated Thursday. The dispatch says three Bolshevik divisions were annihilated in the operations around Warsaw.

Warsaw, Aug. 20. — Poland's army is following up the retreat of the Bolsheviks in the direction of the north and east of Warsaw, and further successes for the Poles are reported. The recapture of Lubow, Drohiczyn and Biala, with thousands of prisoners and great amounts of war material, is reported in today's official communiqué. At Lubow, the Poles captured armed volunteer Jewish detachments composed of local Communists.

To the northwest of Warsaw, the Bolsheviks attacked Plock in a drive designed to carry them across the Vistula, where there is a pontoon bridge, but a Polish counter attack broke the attack. In this the Poles were aided by civilians, who fought side by side with the infantrymen.

Today's communiqué announces the recapture by Polish infantry of a detachment of General Budenny's Soviet cavalry, which had reached Wlady, nine miles southeast of Lemberg. Peasants in the region of Lipno, southeast of Thorn, are reported to be fighting the Bolsheviks with axes and scythes. Newspaper accounts of the operations there say the peasants are taking no prisoners.

Wrangel Checks Red Advance.

Washington, Aug. 20. — The army of General Wrangel has checked the advance of the Bolsheviks in the direction of Southern Russia, and has driven them back across the lower portion of the Dnieper river, according to official advices received by the state department today.

In checking the Red advance on the northeast front after a week of hard fighting, Wrangel's forces captured a large number of prisoners, 24 guns and 100 machine guns, according to the advices which came directly from the American high commissioner in Constantinople.

France Congratulates Poles.

Paris, Aug. 20. — Congratulations to the French diplomatic and military missions in Poland "for the part which they played in the victory of the Poles," have been sent to the French minister at Warsaw by Premier Millerand. In another telegram, addressed to J. J. Jusserand, head of the French mission, the premier asks that congratulations be offered to General Pilsudski "for the glory with which the Polish army has just covered itself."

"France," says the latter message, "which always had faith in the patriotism of the Polish people, welcomes with joy a victory saving Poland and assuring the accomplishment of her historical destiny."

Pilsudski Reaches Bug River.

General Pilsudski's army has reached the Middle Bug river, according to plans, and is marching down the stream to join the army advancing up the fork between the Bug and Narw rivers towards Ostrotenka, with the object of cutting the Warsaw-Diastok road, the enemy's sole avenue of retreat.

Down this road, the Reds are bottling, profiting by the large number of horses in their possession. The fact that they have these horses is said to account for the comparatively small number of prisoners being taken by the Poles. Pursuing French airplanes, however, have prevented the enemy from taking with him many guns and much material. Up to date, seven Bolshevik divisions have been cut to pieces and all their guns captured.

The Polish right wing, advancing from the south, is now before the forts of Brest-Litovsk, and part of it has crossed the Bug river in the direction of Kovel, thus providing a safeguard against flank counter attacks. Polish forces in this region are supported by a Ukrainian division and General Belachovich's Russian volunteer army, which has remained in Polesia, east of Brest-Litovsk, and to the rear of the Bolsheviks. Thus, it is pointed out, the Bolshevik garrison at Brest-Litovsk is virtually cut off on all sides.

Fighting in Upper Silesia.

Perlin, Aug. 20. — Advices from Katowitz, Upper Silesia, late this afternoon said that strong contingents of French troops were occupying the principal streets of the city.

More clashes between the German and Polish elements were feared. The German leaders of Katowitz had demanded that the French troops of occupation be withdrawn, and replaced by Italian contingents, as the only method of preventing further outbreaks.

CHAPMAN RECEIVES CLEVELAND HOMAGE

Thousands of Persons Stand With Bared Heads as Body of Ball Player is Carried into Church

Cleveland, Aug. 20. — Raymond Chapman, star player of the Cleveland American League club and idol of local fans, this morning received the reverential homage of sorrowing Clevelanders.

While the bell of St. John's Roman Catholic cathedral, where the services were held, was tolling, thousands of persons stood with bared heads as the body of Chapman, who died in New York last Tuesday, a victim of a pitched ball there Monday, was carried to the altar and the last rites of the church were said.

It was the largest funeral in Cleveland in years, and not since the visit here of Cardinal Mercier, here of Belgium, has such a mass of people attempted to enter the cathedral.

The members of the Cleveland team arrived from New York this morning to attend the funeral, today's game at Boston having been postponed. Manager Tris Speaker and Outfielder Jack Graney collapsed and could not attend the services. Graney had recovered sufficiently, however, to leave for Boston tonight with the team. Speaker had a high fever tonight and did not go east. He may leave tomorrow.

All classes and walks of life were represented in the crowded church. Bankers and brokers rubbed elbows with laborers and newsmen. In opening his sermon, Dr. William S. Scullion, chancellor of the diocese, took for his text the words of the bible: "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me shall not taste death forever."

"In paying this, our last tribute, to one whom we loved and admired as much for his sterling manhood as for his ability as a ball player," Dr. Scullion said, "we are reminded of the mysteries of life and death and wonder how he had played his part so honestly in our country's great war and in his chosen field could be so suddenly taken from us. The answer lies in my text—he that believeth in me though dead, shall live."

"Chapman was a shining type of typical American youth, and a great example for others."

"Clean, wholesome, gentle and true, he was the idol of this city as a ball player—yet above all was his gentleness and kindness as a man."

Referring to the incident that caused Chapman's death, Dr. Scullion pleaded that "no hostile word should be uttered against the man who was the cause of the unfortunate accident."

"He feels the outcome of it more deeply than most of us do," he said. "The great American game of baseball does not develop men who would willingly try to injure another participant in the game and the game could not produce a man capable of killing another man. Chapman, we know, would be the first to deny any thought of revenge if he could but speak."

RAILROADS BEGIN FILING

BLANKET RATE SCHEDULES

Washington, Aug. 20. — Railroads began filing with the Interstate Commerce commission today blanket schedules to make effective on August 26 the increased passenger and freight rates recently authorized. Under the ruling, the new tariffs become operative upon five days' notice, and the roads have until midnight Saturday to file schedules in order to put them into effect next Thursday as announced.

Representatives of lines in all parts of the country were arriving in a stream today, loaded down with bulky packages of the new schedules which contained passenger fare increases of 20 per cent., a surcharge of 50 per cent. on Pullman space and excess baggage, and a 20 per cent advance in milk charges as well as the general freight rate increases of from 25 to 40 per cent. according to territory. They are expected to increase annual incomes of the roads more than $1,500,000,000.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY SUE

New York, Aug. 20. — Henry Ford, Edsel G. Ford, the Ford Motor company, and others are defendants in a suit filed in the supreme court here today by Leon Tanenbaum and Benjamin M. Straus, as stockholders in the Detroit, Toledo and Ironport railroad, which is controlled by the Fords, to prevent consummation of a proposed 75 year lease of the railroad to the Ford interests.

WORLD COURT MAY BE ISSUE

Harding Thinks Elihu Root's Confererences Abroad Hold Important Possibilities

COX DISAPPOINTED

Regrets Announcement Harding Won't Be Able to Speak With Him at Fair

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 20. — The conferences now in progress abroad between Elihu Root and leading European statesmen for organization of an international court of justice are being closely watched by Senator Harding as he formulates his policy of a world "understanding" for preservation of peace.

The Republican nominee revealed today that he considered the international court conference to hold important possibilities, and added that the plan evolved there might become an element in the political campaign as alignments develop on the league of nations issue.

Mr. Root, a former Republican secretary of state, was the author of the league plank in the Republican national platform, and after his return to this country is expected to confer on the subject with Senator Harding. Thus far the nominee has not been informed of all the details of the conferences abroad, though he is understood to be familiar with much of the progress made in laying down the principles of an international tribunal.

A more detailed statement of the Republican stand on the league issue is to be made by Senator Harding in his address here a week from tomorrow to a delegation from Indianapolis, and it is understood that in pronouncing the principles on which he thinks a society of nations should rest, he will give conspicuous notice to the work of Mr. Root and his colleagues.

Whether the Root proposal will in fact become the basis of a Republican league plank has not been revealed, but Senator Harding expressed gratification today at the progress of the conferences abroad and said he hoped soon to hear more details.

Cox Regrets Harding Won't Speak.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 20. — Regret over his opponent's announcement that he probably will not make an address at the Ohio state fair August 31, was expressed today by Governor Cox.

"I am very sorry Senator Harding is not going to speak," the governor said, "as I already have spent more than an hour preparing my speech, which I hoped to deliver from the same platform. I had expected to request that I be permitted to speak, granting the courtesy to the senator of being permitted to answer me."

Governor Cox spent today at the executive office in the capitol looking after state affairs. In the evening, he pardoned three convicts from the penitentiary, interviewing each personally before granting clemency. Two convicts who also had petitions for pardons were sent back.

"You two boys have not told me the truth. You will have to go back for a while," the governor told them. He had asked each man to tell the story of the commission of the crime for which he was convicted and facts leading up to the crime. Out of several hundred prisoners who have been questioned by the governor in connection with their applications for pardons, he said, the two today were the second and third whom he had sent back to prison because it was apparent they were not telling the truth.

TWO SHOT IN NEGRO

FRACAS AT SARATOGA

Saratoga Springs, Aug. 20. — Police are searching the woods on the outskirts of the city for a negro stable hand known as "Boys," who shot and killed a negro woman early this afternoon and wounded another negro at a little shack where he lived near the race track.

The real names of neither the men nor the woman could be learned by the police. Neighbors saw the negro enter the house, heard shots, and shortly afterward saw the woman run out, with the man in pursuit, firing from a revolver as he ran. The woman fell dead at the second shot.

Her assailant then escaped to the nearby woods. When the police entered the shack they found the other negro on the floor, badly wounded. He was taken to the Saratoga hospital, where slight hope is given for his recovery.

ROCHESTER OFFICIAL KILLED.

Dunnville, Ont., Aug. 20. — Arthur P. O'Leary, comptroller of the city of Rochester, N. Y., is dead, and L. H. Bernard, Buffalo, and C. R. Wood, Philadelphia, are lying seriously injured in a hospital here today, as the result of an automobile accident near Selkirk last night.

The touring car in which they were riding with E. G. Little and G. C. Andrews, of Buffalo, skidded into a ditch and summersaulted twice when its steering gear broke, plunging its five passengers underneath.

Mr. O'Leary died on the way to the hospital.

THINKS NEW YORK STATE ONLY 20,000 YEARS OLD

New York, Aug. 20. — Baron Gerard de Gerse, heading the Swedish geological expedition, which will explore the Hudson, Connecticut and St. Lawrence valleys, arrived here today on the steamer Drottningholm, expressing his belief that New York state is "only 20,000 years old."

Annual deposits shown by rock laminations will show this, he predicted.

Baron de Gerse's party will go to Lake Champlain to begin its work and thence north and west to Canada, perhaps to the Rocky mountains. Later he will return east and take up a detailed exploration of the Hudson and Connecticut river region.

POLE VAULTER FOSS MAKES NEW RECORD

Former Cornell Star Sails Over Bar at Thirteen Feet, Five and an Eighth Inches at Olympiad

(By the Associated Press.)
Olympic Stadium, Antwerp, Aug. 20. — Phenomenal pole vaulting by F. K. Foss, Chicago A. A., former Cornell star, which broke all existing records, and a brilliant distance by four European runners in which the French marvel, Guillemot, went down to defeat, furnished the thrills for the 10,000 spectators at the sixth day of the Olympic games today.

The performances in both these events were exceptionally praise worthy in view of the rain and cold. Foss sailed over the bar, which had been placed at the height of 13 feet, 5 1/8 inches. The old world's record was 12 feet, 2 1/4 inches.

Foss was already the winner of the first place for the United States in the pole vault, but he was urged to go on and break the Olympic record. This he did, and then, after a consultation by the officials, the bar was set at the top height so that Foss might have a chance to excel the world's record.

Twice Foss essayed his task and failed. Then, after a long rest and with all the spectators tense, he took an exceptionally long run and a terrific leap, sailed upward, and curved his body over the bar like the letter C, snapped the pole backward, and dropped amid a great splash of sawdust into the pit on the other side.

The crowd in the stand yelled themselves hoarse as the feat was accomplished, while Foss' teammates lifted him upon their shoulders and marched around, the band meanwhile playing.

United States, 153 points; England, 66 points; Finland, 55 points; Sweden, 50 points; France, 20 points; South Africa, 15 points; Italy, 14 points; Canada, 7 points; Denmark, 7 points; New Zealand, 5 points; Norway, 3 points; Estonia, 3 points; Czechoslovakia, 3 points; Holland, 2 points; Belgium, 1 point.

Americans finished first and second in the 200 metres final, Allen Woodring of Philadelphia capturing the event in 22 seconds, two-fifths of a second slower than the record. Charles W. Faddock, the Los Angeles A. C. star, took second place.

Premier honors in the 400 metre final were won by B. G. D. Rudd, the South African Oxford runner. Frank J. Shea, of the United States Navy was only able to finish fourth in the event.

The 10,000 metre run which proved, in the opinion of experts present, to be one of the greatest distance events of modern times was won by Nurmi of Finland by a sprint from Guillemot, the French pole, while the stands were in an uproar over the exciting contest.

KNIGHTS ARRIVE AT METZ

Fifty Thousand Citizens Welcome American Delegation Visiting France.

(By the Associated Press.)
Metz, France, Aug. 20. — Fifty thousand citizens of Metz, and all parts of the province of Lorraine, lined the streets leading to the railway station and Station Square itself as the special train carrying the Knights of Columbus delegation pulled in today. School girls from all Catholic schools in Metz, attired in the gay colors of the national costume, and wearing quaint headdresses, were at the station with flowers. They sang a song of welcome while Perfect Manceron greeted Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty as he stepped from the train.

General Berthelot later chaperoned the Knights in a visit to Fort Mount St. Quentin, overlooking the city. Bishop Petit of the Metz diocese, pointing to Metz, said:

"The Americans had more to do with delivering our beautiful Metz than any other country save France."

Bishop Petit then conducted the party to his cathedral, where chimes were pealed in welcome as the American visitors entered. The bishop offered the Knights the freedom of the cathedral during their visit here.

Marshal Foch and Hugh C. Wallace, American ambassador, will arrive here this evening and attend a gala performance at the opera house. French and American music will be on the program for this occasion.

Tomorrow has been declared a public holiday by the prefect, and schools, banks and public buildings will be closed.

TWO KILLED IN GAS EXPLOSION

Syracuse Gasoline and Oil Station Blown Up When Spark Sets Fire to Tank

PROBE IS UNDER WAY

Eight Men Injured and Several Others Have Narrow Escapes; Blast Shakes City

Syracuse, Aug. 20. — Two separate investigations are under way to determine if possible the cause of the explosion at the gasoline and oil station of the C. E. Mills Oil company, here today, which resulted in the death of two and the injuring of eight persons. Mayor Harry Farmer directed the city department of Public Safety to inquire into the accident and Coroner Henry Crane also started an investigation.

The Public Safety department announced that the Mills company had complied with all requirements of the city building code in the construction of the station. An inspection of the station early in the week showed all regulations were being observed, Public Service Commissioner Nicholson said.

Nothing definite is known as to just what caused the explosion. In a statement issued tonight, C. E. Mills, president of the oil company, said the blow-up resulted when a spark from an electric fan ignited gas fumes arising from a leak in one of the large tanks. The fan was taken into the cellar of the station, Mr. Mills said by Harry S. Watkeys, a company plumber, who was killed, for the purpose of expelling gas fumes in order that repairs might be made to the leaky tank.

Explosion heard for Miles.

The last vestige of the station was blown from its location into the streets, a radius of three blocks. The explosion was heard for miles. Windows in nearby dwellings and manufacturing plants were wrecked. Street cars were blocked. Every ambulance in the city, including a portion of the fire department, responded.

Tons of dirt, among which were heavy timbers, were taken from the hole at least 10 feet deep before the bodies of the victims were recovered. Searchers worked in relays under the direction of the chief of the fire department.

Thousands of workers in the vicinity became panic-stricken when bricks and heavy mortar slabs blown high into the air struck the surrounding buildings, in some instances going through the roofs.

Persons nearby at the time were cut by flying glass, with which the streets in all directions were littered.

The known dead are: H. R. Greenland, 23, and Harry S. Watkeys, 30. The injured: Morris Snyder, finisher, of the H. H. Franklin company; J. Elwell, 18; Leroy Arnold, 24; George Pfohl, 15 employees of the Mills Oil company; Thomas Chitwin, contractor.

J. B. Jardine, secretary of the Toronto harbor commission, was not injured. His escape from death by hurling debris is considered fortunate inasmuch as he was within a few feet of the buildings at the time of the explosion. Accompanying him was W. B. Austerman of Syracuse. The men were in an automobile which had but a few moments before called at the station for fuel. Mr. Jardine was standing near the car at the rear end and was about to enter when the blast came.

He was staggered and stunned by the shock and was later driven to his hotel.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

AT A LOW PRICE LEVEL

Washington, Aug. 20. — Potatoes, fruits and vegetables generally near the season's low price today, according to a department of agriculture market summary issued today. At $3 a barrel, reached in New York, potato prices to growers are now lower than they ought to be, considering the cost of production," the statement said.

In western cities, potatoes are higher than in the East, and the price range is from $4 to $5 a barrel. Onions at 70 cents a bushel, and cabbage at $20 a ton, the statement said, "are going at radical prices."

Cantaloupes, watermelon and green-stuffs and summer fruits generally have "suffered a severe reaction from the high market of spring and early summer."

The first of western boxed apples to reach Chicago are bringing from $2.50 to $3, against a $4 price early in the season.

ARREST JENKINS KIDNAPPER.

Mexico City, Aug. 20. — Orders have been issued for the arrest of General Federico Cordova, alleged to have been chiefly responsible for the kidnapping of William O. Jenkins, formerly United States consul at Puebla, says a dispatch to "Excelsior" from Puebla. General Cordova is reported to be in Tuxtla, Vera Cruz state, where he is commanding military forces.

NEW YORK HOLD-UP MEN HAVE BUSY DAY

Physician Knocked Down and Robbed of $3,000—Mail Bag With $100,000 Stolen

New York, Aug. 20. — Dr. Emil F. Hartung, of Brooklyn, coroner's physician of Kings county for 18 years and intimate friend of Mayor Hylan, was held up and robbed by two men in a house in Marion street today. The robbers knocked the physician unconscious, stole from him jewelry and cash valued at $3,000, and escaped.

Dr. Hartung's condition this afternoon was reported critical.

The physician was called to his house by a man whom he had been treating at his office for several days for a slight affliction. When he bent over a bed on which the "patient" was lying, feigning serious illness, another man, masked and armed with a revolver ordered him to put up his hands.

Dr. Hartung, of powerful physique, grappled with the men but was thrown to the floor and beaten with a hammer and chisel.

Later in the day, three armed men held up Frank Clera, cashier of the Hammond Typewriter company, as he was walking in East 62nd street, and robbed him of $18,000 in cash made up for the payroll. They escaped in a taxicab.

While this was going on in broad daylight, Supreme Court Justice Mitchell, of the Bronx, in responding to a grand jury presentation, bitterly arraigned the system of "entertaining, carefully rearing, nourishing and nursing" criminals in state institutions. "Those years a criminal spends in a prison," declared the justice, "ought to be remembered by him as years when he suffered; not years when he received better food than ever before in his life; not years when he received better treatment than he received from anybody; not years when he received entertainment of motion picture shows without paying for them."

Mail Bag Stolen in Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 20. — A mail pouch, believed to contain money and valuables worth $100,000, was stolen by two men today from a suburban station of the Illinois Central railroad. The robbers escaped in an automobile.

The money, according to postal authorities, was being sent to the Pullman Trust and Savings bank. It left the federal building about noon. When the train reached the 111th street station, the pouch was thrown down a chute to the street level, where messengers from the bank were supposed to be waiting to receive it.

The money was to be used tomorrow to cash checks of the Pullman company and the Sherwin-Williams factory. The $100,000 was all in bills of one, five, ten and twenty dollar denominations.

Police reports say that when the bag was temporarily in charge of Leo Wilgus a 13-year-old boy, it was taken from him by an elderly man wearing brown glasses, who leaped into a waiting automobile, piloted by a young man, and disappeared in the direction of Chicago.

OFFICERS KILLED IN

FIGHT OVER PRISONER

Irwin, Ky., Aug. 20. — Rivalry between two sets of officers is believed to have been the cause of the fatal shooting last night of Tom Marshall, R. G. Philpot and Deputy Sheriff Henry Reed and the wounding of two other persons, one an officer.

According to alleged witnesses, Reed had arrested a man on a charge of bootlegging as he alighted from a midnight train and was taking him to a prison when Marshall Philpot demanded the prisoner. Reed is alleged to have demurred, whereupon Philpot is alleged to have knocked him down. Shooting then commenced. Philpot died within a few minutes and Reed while on the way to a hospital in Richmond.

The prisoner over whom the trouble started was shot in the side and Joseph Sprivey, a local officer, sustained a slight wound.

UNIQUE COLLECTION BOX

Washington, Aug. 20. — A contribution from Secretary Daniels today started on its way around the world a unique collection box which will be sent to every marine corps post and station on the map to raise a fund for the erection of a memorial tablet in the Belleau Woods military cemetery.

France, to the marines who lost their lives in that battle. The fund is being raised by the Belleau Wood Chapter, American Legion, composed of 303 women who enlisted in the Marine corps reserve during the war.

The collection box will travel by train, airplane and ship, having been routed to every naval vessel carrying a marine complement.

SHIPPING RATES INCREASED.

San Francisco, Aug. 20. — A 20 per cent. increase in nearly all eastbound freight rates, effective September 1, was announced here today by the intercoastal conference, representing seven of the principal steamship lines operating between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

It was announced the new tariffs would not apply to gulf ports, and that new west-bound rates would be announced shortly.

HOPE TO CLINCH VICTORY TODAY

Suffragists Muster Forces to Defeat Reconsideration Resolution When It Comes Up

RESULT IS DOUBTFUL

Antis Need Only Two More Adherents to Put Across Their Plan to Nullify Action

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 20. — Suffrage leaders were preparing tonight to clinch their victory by closing tomorrow the last parliamentary loophole through which Tennessee's approval of the federal suffrage amendment might be rescinded. They were confident after the adjournment of its house today without a vote on reconsideration, of their ability to sweep aside the last obstacle to formal certification of the action of the legislature to Secretary Colby at Washington.

Some parliamentarians, including Attorney General Thompson, contended that today's action was final. Others, including suffrage adherents, however, took an opposite view.

When the house met, Speaker Walker was in a position to move reconsideration of the amendment, having changed his vote to "aye" for that purpose. Under house rules, he could make that motion at any time in the next two days succeeding the vote. Today was the second day.

Contents Action Is Final.

Attorney General Thompson contended that Mr. Walker's failure to act today settled the question of reconsideration and that the resolution now was ready for engrossing and certification to Washington. Others, however, maintained that the motion stood on the journal as a matter of record and unacted upon, and that to remove all doubt it must be disposed of.

It was with this objection in view that the suffragists today by a vote of 49 to 47 defeated a motion of the opposition to adjourn until Monday afternoon for the usual week-end recess and then forced adjournment only until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Action on the Walker motion was planned as soon as the order of business would permit.

Mr. Walker last night declared he had enough votes pledged to force a reconsideration, but when he moved today for adjournment until Monday, it was taken as an indication that he was uncertain of his position. The vote confirmed this supposition.

Walker, however, still had a chance to win on the vote planned tomorrow on his motion for reconsideration should he persuade at least two suffragists to desert their leaders.

Suffragists, however, did not fear a break in their ranks and were confident that they would dispose of the Walker motion, either defeating it or sending it to the table.

Higgins Plans Action.

Should the opposition be successful, it was thought certain Attorney General Thompson's opinion that Walker's failure to act today had settled the question of reconsideration, would be made the basis for further battle by suffragist forces.

A victory tomorrow, however, does not mean that the question of ratification by Tennessee is settled.

Judge Joseph Higgins, of Nashville, president of the Tennessee Constitutional League, stated today that if the success of the suffragists in the house is assured, he is prepared to seek a writ restraining Governor Roberts and the Secretary of State from certifying the measure to Washington on the ground that action by this legislature was in violation of the state constitution.

The constitution provides that no legislation shall pass upon a proposed amendment unless its members were elected after the proposed measure had been submitted by congress. This legislature was elected in November, 1918, before congress submitted the suffrage amendment.

The special session to act on the amendment was called after receiving opinions of W. L. Frierson, solicitor general of the United States and Attorney General Thompson, that a decision of the supreme court of the United States holding invalid a referendum clause in the Ohio constitution also nullified the clause of the Tennessee constitutional provision.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Keeps His Stomach and Liver in Order

F. R. ADAMS

154 Elm St., Lakeport, N. H.
"I realize that I have reached the age (65) when one often requires fixing up. My digestion was not right and trouble with my liver and bowels caused considerable distress. I could not get rid of the constipation; and the insufficient action of my bowels resulted in my blood absorbing the poisons."

Last fall, I began taking 'Fruit-a-tives' or Fruit Liver Tablets, and after using them for a short time I could see they were just what my system required. My liver became active and improvement in every way was apparent."

I doubt whether anyone could feel better than I do; and I am willing to give credit where credit is due, to 'Fruit-a-tives'." F. R. ADAMS.

This stirring William Fox photodrama of Alaska was adapted to the screen from Larry Evans' famous novel, "The Silent Lie." The picture unfolds an intensely dramatic story of a young woman who battles against the almost overpowering wrath and resentment of her stepfather, who has vented his hatred upon her because of her mother's unfaithfulness. It is a great picture, and was directed by R. A. Walsh, who made such Fox film masterpieces as "The Honor System," "Regeneration" and "Evangeline." It will be presented with an all-star cast.

Mary Miles Minter, Star of the Realart Picture, "Judy of Rogues' Harbor," which will be shown at this theatre on Monday and Tuesday, is afforded every opportunity to display her gifted ability and matured artistry in this well-known story, adapted from Grace Miller White's book. The athletic young star enters into the tense scenes and exciting situations with all the vim, vigor, nerve and vivacity of her girlhood. She is at home in many scenes calling upon her physical powers and histrionic ability. No expense has been spared to produce a photoplay that will be hugely enjoyed.

A GREAT AMERICAN PROBLEM.

At a time when the governor of the state is calling a special session of the legislature to discuss the housing problem in an endeavor to find some means of relieving the distressing conditions in many of the cities of the state, and when the decreased population of the rural counties is being the subject of comment in the press, it requires no great wisdom to discern that the extraordinary growth of population in the cities and the depopulation of the younger generation in large part from the agricultural sections, is responsible for the serious state of affairs of not all of our social, industrial and agricultural problems.

When a city becomes so crowded that it is unable to house properly thousands of people and two and three families live in space that is not sufficient for one to live in properly, the social conditions cannot be good and it is certain that chaos and unrest and dissatisfaction follow. It is not surprising that all sorts of economic vagaries thrive and that a feeling of uncertainty exists. Then, too, the living conditions are for countless thousands deplorable. Is it not the fact that our cities are getting too big and that for the future welfare of society some systematic effort should at once be made, nation-wide in its scope, to foster the spirit of the pioneer, if you please, and bring these restless thousands out upon the countless acres of America, where life is really worth the living?

There is much of apparent misdirected effort toward relieving the prevailing unrest and one is led to wonder if an intelligent, well-directed survey of the situation to be followed by a well thought out campaign of advertising and education emphasizing the possibilities and advantages of habitation in localities that await the development of the hand and the brain of the average man and woman would not accomplish much good.
The advantages of life free from the turmoil of the great centers are well appreciated by many. Would they not with good results be brought more appealingly to the consideration of the great mass of people in the great cities?

In the ownership of a farm or home with a few acres of land attached by individuals will be found one certain cure for discontent. Is it too much to hope that an intelligent direction of population through showing the practical benefits of life in the country, where freedom is found, would result in greater satisfaction and more happiness for them?

The chances of the individuals would be greatly increased. There would result less of overwrought nerves and high tension which unquestionably breed restless feelings and much of the discontent existing today. With room to breathe, plenty of sunshine and fresh air and more of the fruits of individual and community toll, the so-called evils that breed in the minds of the illiterate and unintelligent radicalism of the worst sort would be mitigated and both they and society would be benefited. We have not too large a population, but we have too dense a population in certain centers, wherein are developing many of the microbes that cause some of the diseases of our social and industrial life. While it is not suggested as a panacea for all of them, there is no doubt that great good would result if our population could be spread out over the country more uniformly. The question is rapidly becoming a great American problem.

Dodge Brothers Celebrate Success.

The Dodge Brothers company recently celebrated the finishing of the last car of 500,000 built since the completion of their last contract as manufacturers of automobile parts. On July 1st, 1914, the first Dodge Brothers motor car had not been built. Production has attained the half million mark within 67 months after the first car was put on the market. This was an achievement unparalleled in the automobile industry and was accordingly made the occasion of a fitting celebration with a special concert by Dodge Brothers band, and an address by F. J. Haynes, vice president and general manager.

On December 4th, 1914, when the first car left the factory, Dodge Brothers works comprised little more than 29 square acres of floor space. Now the acreage has risen to 100 and additions under construction will soon bring it well above 120. Instead of a few thousand workmen the plant now employs more than 22,000 men.

In Police Court.

A stranger, who gave the name of Frank Williams and who claimed to have come from the city of Ithaca, but not from Cornell university, apprehended for panhandling on Church and Center streets on Thursday, was rather abusive of the officer when taken into custody and rather mouthy when in court yesterday and was sent to the Cooperstown jail for 30 days, he being unable to give a good account of himself.

Jesse Oakley, who alleged that he resides in Stamford, arrested on the charge of vagrancy, received a suspended sentence in consideration of his making tracks for Delaware county as fast as his legs would permit.

STOCKING THE STREAMS.

Members of the Local Club Receive

Consignment of 42,000 Trout.

Oneonta fishermen have for several seasons been doing excellent work restocking the trout streams hereabouts with fish and the effort has been rewarded with a good measure of success, for with the number of fishermen in the city and vicinity, the streams would have been barren of any trout ere this but for their efforts.

This summer, the fishing has been good and many of the experts have had fine sport while others have been able to get a few—now and then.

Yesterday, a shipment of 84 cans arrived from the hatchery at Bath and were distributed by members of the local club in the vicinity streams. Of that number, 42 cans were placed in the small streams tributary to the Otego creek. Of the others, 19 cans went to the Oulout creek and the balance were sent to the Charlotte.

They contained 500 fingerling trout each or a total of 42,000 trout. These should be eight or nine inches across season or of lawful catching size.

Members of the club have other applications in to the commission and are anticipating another shipment of about 100 cans, which will certainly be a good season's work. The club deserves the support of all who enjoy a day's fishing now and then.

enue into Main street, collided with his car doing some slight damage to both cars. He was unable to identify the —The Oneonta City band will give the sixth of its popular summer concerts tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The concert will be given on the Elks' Club house lawn in front of Brown's park. A program has been selected which will compare favorably with any concert given this summer, one of the features being a grand selection from old home songs so familiar and dear in the days gone by.

Motor Truck Line from Albany.

The "ship by truck" movement will receive a new impetus if plans of an Albany firm are carried out to establish a regular freight and express service between Albany, Oneonta and Binghamton. Lines from Albany to other cities also are planned.

The firm is the Sterling Motor Terminal and Transportation corporation, which will open a motor truck express terminal today on the Hudson Navigation company's pier at the foot of Madison avenue and will inaugurate the first freight express by truck service for Albany merchants to cities in the capital district.

Regular express shipments will be received at the terminal, to be shipped to various cities along the routes on which the corporation will operate and will be shipped under express conditions for about 25 per cent less than express rates, according to Ernest A. Barvoets of Albany, one of the directors of the corporation.

FIRE UPON BOYS AT PLAY

THE CHARGE MADE AGAINST "MICKY" McHUGH, TAKEN INTO CUSTODY FRIDAY.

Mrs. James Woodis, the complainant, who alleges that he fired a rifle three times directly at the boys—had threatened other children, neighbors say.

Michael McHugh, residing alone at 17 South Sand street, popularly known for years as "Micky" McHugh, was apprehended by Chief Horton and Officer Cross at his home, shortly after 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, charged with assault in the second degree, it being asserted by the complainant, Mrs. James Woodis, residing on McHugh street, near his home, that he had fired with a rifle at her young son and the son of a neighbor while they were at play in the field near her home. McHugh was taken to police headquarters and later arraigned before Judge Huntington.

Attorney John G. Johnson appeared for him and requested that the examination be adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock to give him a chance to cross-examine the complainant and the other complaining witness. The request was granted.

McHugh has been living alone for some time at the old home, and it is understood that he has been quite free with the use of firearms and has threatened others. Neighbors have not been allowed to use McHugh street at times at least. It would appear that as he has grown old he has become inclined to be troublesome, at times at least. He is quoted as threatening other children if they stepped upon the premises. Members of his family have previously taken firearms from him.

According to the statements of Mrs. Woodis their son, James Jr., aged five years, and Stewart Oldes, aged six years, son of Mrs. Alice Oldes of South Sand street, were playing in the field about midway between the tenement house occupied by the Woodis family and the home of McHugh, shortly before noon, when he came out from behind a bank existing between the two houses and fired twice or three times with a rifle directly at the two boys. According to her statements he gave the boys no warning. Mrs. Woodis ran out and called the boys to the house and no more shots were fired. As soon as she could recover her composure she summoned her husband and the complainant was made.

Mrs. Alice Oldes, mother of Stewart, residing in the house next below that of Mr. McHugh, also made a supporting affidavit. She declares that McHugh has several times threatened to shoot her children and that last summer, perhaps more than this, he was especially obstinate and ugly with them. He would not allow them to use McHugh street, which has been open for years.

It is truly unfortunate that the man has grown so troublesome, and it is probable that steps will be taken to prevent a recurrence of the offense of yesterday. He, evidently, in his present condition, is not a safe man to be permitted to have the use of firearms.

Grows Stale Potato.

The largest potato of the season thus far was dug yesterday from the garden plot of J. E. Goodsell at the Plains and weighed 1 1/2 pounds. It was one of the Bovee variety which quite uniformly weigh 8 to 10 ounces. Mr. Goodsell grew last year some eight bushels which averaged about that size.

Found Dead in a Barn.

Did you hear about it? He was a chap about 65 years old, wore a sweater, didn't have any coat on no one knew him. Well, many parents don't seem to care or understand that their little wild savage kids on the streets of Oneonta are traveling the same kind of a road; while if they were given parental care and advice to save just a measly dime each day and judiciously place with me monthly. I would safely roll it at compound interest and hand each of them 5,000 bucks at this man's age. But this isn't all; for it would put common sense and pep into the little savages, so that many of them would have 25,000 bucks, with which to help their parents, in the same kind of lean weary years of old age that this fellow went through. I've been doing this up to several million dollars and am now starting another big bunch of little fellows to thus safely roll up half a million more and Uncle Sam helps me. Why can't a lot of careless parents see a hole in a ladder? I am the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association.

THINK BRAZEE MAY RECOVER

X-Ray Photo Indicates Bullet Did Not Penetrate Pleura Cavity, But Followed Rib Around to Back—Warrent Charging Murder in First Degree Issued.

Indications have been brighter for the past 24 hours that George Brazee, who shot and killed his former wife at Elk Creek on Wednesday, will recover from the wound inflicted when he was shot by Guy Hughes upon whom Brazee was firing.

Dr. Charles R. Marsh, the surgeon in charge of his case, has made an X-ray picture of the wound which clearly indicates that the bullet did not pass directly through the chest, but after fracturing a rib at the front followed the ribs around to the back, fracturing one or more ribs at the back of the chest. His condition is improving to such an extent that Dr. Marsh is contemplating, should he continue for a couple of days to show improvement, to operate upon him for the removal of the bullet. At the Fox hospital late last evening it was stated that the patient was continuing to show improvement.

In view of the possibility of his recovery, news of his improvement reaching the county officers, Sheriff VanZandt and District Attorney Pearson yesterday went before Justice Myron R. Bulson of Schenectady and secured a warrant for the arrest of Brazee on the charge of murder in the first degree. The warrant has been placed in the hands of Chief Horton, who will be kept informed relative to the condition of Brazee and when the circumstances will warrant he will be taken into custody. He will then in all probability be moved to the hospital bed at the county jail and held to await the action of the grand jury.

In view of his past record and the evidence which appears conclusive of his committing the murder of the woman, it would appear that the county would be saved a large expense and he himself saved a trying ordeal if a merciful providence could take him at this time.

Much sympathy is felt for the lad Hughes, who is still detained at the county jail awaiting the outcome of Brazee's injuries. It is freely predicted that no grand jury in the county will return an indictment, although it will doubtless be the duty of the district attorney to present the case to the jury for action. In the event that Brazee recovers then a new phase is presented, and Hughes will become an important witness for the People. In any event his time spent in the county jail awaiting further action will quite likely be the only punishment he will receive, if it can be viewed as punishment. He should have no difficulty in establishing the fact that he shot in self defence. It is not improbable that he will be admitted to bail should Brazee recover.

GIVEN MILITARY FUNERAL

Local Firing Squad Attends Services for Private James Hubbard.

First Sergeant Julian B. Jackson, with a firing squad composed of sergeant P. A. Wood, Corporal F. E. House, and Privates G. H. Burd, S. B. Bushnell, M. Dickson, J. A. Gilchrist, C. C. House and R. D. Miller, was in Stamford yesterday afternoon to render military honors at funeral services conducted for Private James Hubbard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hubbard of that village, but formerly of Oneonta, where he was employed prior to entering war service.

The services were in charge of the Stamford post of the American Legion and were impressively carried out, the firing squad firing a salute to the dead at the grave. The squad was composed of members of the local Company G, State Guard.

Private Hubbard died on a transport while on his way to France to serve as a mechanic in the aviation corps. Prior to entering the service he was employed for some time at Brannaman's garage here and was well known to many Oneontans. At the request of his parents, his body was removed from its temporary resting place in a French cemetery and brought to the United States, arriving in Stamford earlier in the week.

REV. FROMMHAZEN INSTALLED

New Pastor of Zion Lutheran Church of Moundsville, Pa.

Yesterday morning at Zion Lutheran church occurred the ordination and installation services of their pastor, Rev. Frederick C. Frommhagen. The services were conducted by Rev. Ellis B. Burgess, D. D., president of the Pittsburgh Synod, with Rev. J. Elmer Buttle, D. D., missionary superintendent of the same synod assisting.

A goodly attendance of men, women and friends of the congregation heard a very forcible yet pleasing sermon preached by Dr. Buttle, who used for his text, 2 Timothy 2:15, Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. He brought out very clearly the salient points of the working and duties of a minister of the Gospel, emphasizing especially that by rightly dividing the word of truth the minister of God held within his hand the cure for the ills whether social, political or religious, of the present day.

The beautifully decorated interior, filled with a profusion of flowers, lent an added attractiveness to these impressive services.—(Moundsville Journal.)

Rev. Frommhagen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frommhagen of 42 Academy street and a former resident of this city.

JUST REPETITION OF HISTORY

Fade of the Present Day Had Their Counterpart in the Fashions of Years Ago.

Nothing is new under the sun, not even the newest and most up-to-date girl stunner of the present day, with bobbed hair, nor even the employer who complains of the fashion. A writer in "Blackwood" has discovered that in the time of James I, this fashion was affected by women who donned the doublet and hose, which aroused the ire of an unknown author, who in 1629 lampooned the women of the day for so dressing, and instead of keeping to "the modest attire of the country," he said, "they have taken to the 'cloudy, ruffianly, broad-brimmed hat and wadded feathers.' Nor was this all. The extravagance of her costume, with the 'French doublet' which took the place of a 'cancelled straight gown' was not in the author's eye the deadliest offense; incredible though it seems, she would 'out and cut her hair to the despicable fashion of the Puritan.' So the bobbed hair comes as a reminiscence of the modern maid's forebears in the 'Covenanters' time.

Selling Shoes Under Difficulties.
Dean B. Stover, southern salesman for a Brockton shoe concern, got an order under difficulties while out on his last trip. He made a North Carolina town and hired a taxi to take him to a township 15 miles away to which few trains run. Arriving on the outskirts of his destination he found that the heavy floods had washed away the only bridge. Mr. Stover decided the only thing to do was to turn back until the taxi driver suggested that there might be a boat somewhere around. Mr. Stover hunted along the banks until he found a flat bottomed skiff and he rowed across. He interviewed his customer, paddled him back to the other shore, requisitioned a small wharf and laid his samples out on the roadside. And he made the sale—Brockton Enterprise.

The Kookaburra.
Australia has no nightingale, but it has a bird quite exceptional in its song—the kookaburra or the "laughing jackass." Its laugh is so human it startles the newcomer, for when one bird starts to laugh, the others follow. Then there is a merry time which makes men join heartily in the song, if song it be.

MRS. MARION TYLER

Westford Losses One of Its Most Respected Residents.
Westford, Aug. 20.—In the death of Mrs. Marion Tyler on Tuesday morning last, Westford loses one of its old and most respected residents. Marion Roseboom was born in this town, the daughter of Robert and Hannah Roseboom, on Sept. 27, 1846, and when a young woman was united in marriage to George Disbrow of Ghent, Columbia county. Upon his death, she returned to her home here and in December, 1879, married Menzo Tyler. To them were born three sons, F. Grant of this village, John K., who has always resided on the home farm, and Jay, who died in young manhood. Since the death of her husband, Mrs. Tyler had been the housekeeper for her son until declining health prevented. Mrs. Tyler had been a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church for many years, was a good wife and mother, and a valued friend and neighbor. Besides the sons mentioned above, three grandchildren survive her. The funeral was held from her late home Thursday, with a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. J. G. Rice, a former pastor, now of Middlefield, officiated and Rev. George Williams sang two solos. The bearers were four nephews of the deceased. Interment was in the family plot in the village cemetery. Relatives from Illinois were here to attend the funeral, also Fred Roseboom of Afton.

GEYSERS ARE AT BEST THIS YEAR

Activity of Old Faithful and the Rest New Wonder of Yellowstone National Park.

TERRACES GORGEOUS IN COLOR

Great Depth of Snow Last Winter Believed Responsible for Unusual Brilliance of Natural Phenomena—Deer Often Seen.

Yellowstone National Park, Wyo.—Interesting changes have developed this year in the natural wonders of Yellowstone National park. Led by Old Faithful geyser, which has shortened the intervals of its performance by almost a quarter of an hour, and is now playing every 64 minutes, the geysers and hot springs are on their best behavior, promising a season of unsurpassed beauty, as if mindful that the number of visitors is expected to exceed 100,000 for the first time in the history of the park. Unusual depth of snow during the winter, followed by a rainy spring, is believed to be responsible for the brilliance of the natural phenomena. Abundant moisture has been stored in the underground passages feeding the geysers and springs to enable them to excel their previous exhibitions. The Grand has become the park's most powerful geyser. It is playing once or twice each day, and for ten to thirty minutes affords a magnificent spectacle of a fountain of steaming water 200 feet in height, which is succeeded by five to twelve distinct eruptions. Giant and Giantess have been giving great exhibitions. Constant has discontinued operations, its activity apparently transferred to the Whirligig, directly across the footpath.

Terraces Gorgeous in Color.
Mud Boiler has changed its tactics and is discharging water that is almost clear. Scores of small geysers are constantly in action and of course Old Faithful, which attains a height of 125 to 170 feet, is observed hourly by persons from all parts of the world, as in previous years.

At Mammoth Hot Springs, the headquarters of the park administration, the terraces are a marvel of gorgeous coloring, where the hot water ripples over the unique formations. With the single exception of Minerva Terrace, which is less splendid than in past years, all of the terraces are performing with great volume. Cleopatra apparently is trying to make up for Minerva's deficiency by starting a new channel where the coloring changes daily.

Jupiter, for many years the finest of all the terraces, has lost its leadership, being surpassed by the prosaically named Pulpit Terrace, which is sending more water than ever from its sapphire pool over a series of beautifully curved basins, fretted and colored like some old Gothic carving, until more than 200 feet below a conduit is reached, which takes the warm waters from all the springs into the open-air bathing pool.

Deer Appear Occasionally.
Hymen Terrace is attracting great attention because of the abundance and exquisite shape of the algae, or microscopic plants, which give the terraces their color. Nowhere else in the park are to be found such graceful formations, floating in the water like ostrich plumes of delicate green. Angel Terrace has developed a rich pink coloring, much like a birthday cake, a resemblance enhanced by the trees, which the growing terrace reached out and killed, and which now stick out through the crust like white candles. Occasionally a deer can be seen and photographed, nibbling the salty encrustations from the trees.

Orange Spring Terrace, which has grown to a great mound 15 feet high, has a tiny assistant, an "off-spring," to quote the pun of a visitor, which bubbles merrily at the original level of the parent spring, affording a comprehensive view of how the terraces have been built.

Mineral springs in the park, including the apollinaris and iron springs, which are eagerly sought by visitors desiring to drink the waters, are producing great quantities.

Alligators Getting Scarce.
New Orleans, La.—Because every one seems to want to make a success of him, the alligator is becoming comparatively scarce in Louisiana and protective measures are being formed by the conservation commission. Statistics compiled by port authorities here show that practically all of the alligator skins exported from the United States go through this port. One concern alone is exporting an average of 10,000 hides each month throughout the year.

Moose Likes Farmer.
New Glasgow, Can.—A farmer here has a tame moose on his hands who he is feeding at the expense of the provincial government. A cow moose, lame and ill, limped into his barnyard some weeks ago and, after being fed and befriended, became so attached to the farmer that when turned out at the order of the game warden it refused to take to the woods and returned to the farm. A new home in Lafontaine park will likely be found for the animal.

Mother Endearments.
A baby needs love and cuddling just as it needs its mother's milk, or bath, or clean clothes. The age-old mother endearments are the truest wisdom. They coax the awakening baby soul as the sun coaxes out the wild flowers in the springtime. They give zest to baby life, and without that zest babies grow listless and stupid, and many of them fade and die.—Exchange.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

THE NEW YORK STATE BARGE CANAL.

To open the western country and to provide safe and cheap transportation for market-bound products, the improvement of the waterways was an absolute necessity. Governor De Witt Clinton dreamed of a state-owned canal. The route was inspected and approved by President George Washington, engineer and surveyor. The Erie canal, opened in 1825, four feet deep, 42 feet wide and floating boats carrying 30 tons, was the result. Many laughed at it, calling it "Clinton's Big Ditch." In conjunction with the Niagara river, it connected Lake Erie and the Hudson river.

Prior to its opening Philadelphia was America's greatest seaport. After its completion, the shipping naturally went to New York and the splendid chain of prosperous cities which won for New York the title of Empire state, sprang up along the route. The canal had such an enormous business that in 1903, the people of the state decided to make it a barge canal, hence the name.

The present main canal is 12 feet deep, 75 to 200 feet wide, 330 miles long and has three branches aggregating 100 miles in length. It is one of the world's greatest engineering feats and is ten times as long as the Panama canal. It contains 57 locks, each 328 feet long and 45 feet wide. Five at Watford have a combined lift of 165 feet and are the greatest series of high-lift locks in the world. Three hundred or more bridges, carrying railroads and public highways, cross this canal. The total cost approximated $150,000,000, and is being paid by the people of the Empire state.

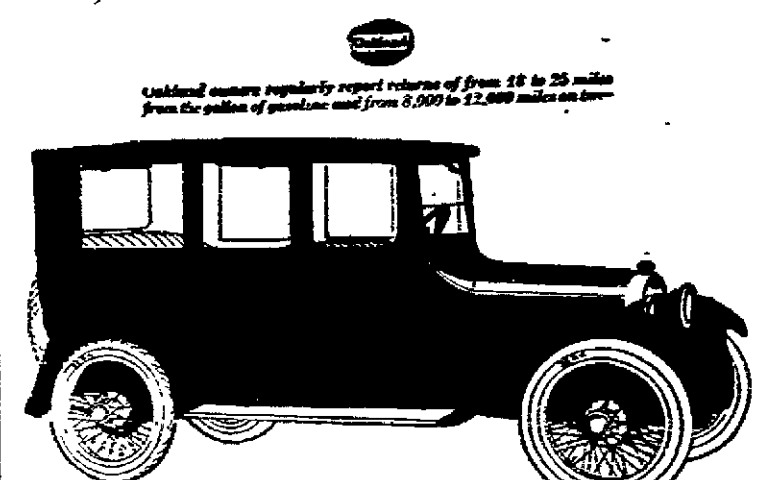

Ancient Hunger Strikers.
Hunger striking is not the modern development most people think. In the seventeenth century, Evelyn, the diarist, discovered cases and made notes of them. "I had the curiosity to visit some Quakers here in prison," he wrote of a visit he made to Ipswich in July, 1656, "a new sect which show no respect to any man, magistrate or other. . . . One of these was said to have fasted twenty days; but another, endeavoring to do the like, perished on the tenth, when he would have eaten, but could not."

Immunity From Ivy Poisoning.
Persons susceptible to ivy poisoning can be rendered immune by taking a treatment described by Dr. Jay Frank Schumberg in the Journal of the American Medical association. It consists in taking after meals a preparation of tincture of poison ivy, in doses gradually increasing from one drop to a teaspoonful. The immunity conferred by this lasts for about a month. Ivy poisoning may also be cured by administering the same drug in larger doses, increasing more rapidly.
